

Lecturer in Law, the Faculty of Business, Law and Digital Technologies at the Southampton Solent University.

Education & Professional Background: - I have a Ph.D. in the field of Public International Law with a strain of Human Rights and International Law at the University of Portsmouth, United Kingdom. I am also a holder of a Postgraduate degree in Law (LL.M, International Law) from the University of the West of England, Bristol, United Kingdom. I have a Master of Business Administration degree (MBA, Strategic Management) from Daystar University, Kenya as well as an undergraduate law degree (LL. B) from Moi University, Kenya. Professionally, I am a qualified attorney having been admitted to the Kenyan bar as an Advocate of the High Court with over 13 years' experience. A certified teacher possessing an Apex Pathway Foundation Certificate by the University of Portsmouth, the initial professional development towards Descriptor 1 of the UK Professional Standards Framework for teaching and supporting learning in Higher Education (UKPSF), I am on track to gaining a Fellowship of Higher Education Academy aligned to Descriptor 2 of the UK Professional Standards Framework. I am a member of the Society of Legal Scholars, UK. Hold certification in Public Private Partnerships from the IP3 Institute in Virginia, Arlington USA.

Professional Service: - My work experience spans law firm practice, state corporation and academia. I have previously worked as an Associate Lecturer at the University of the West of England, a Researcher in International Law at the University of Portsmouth, as well as a Lecturer in Law at the ICP (University of Portsmouth) all the work stations being in England, UK. In these roles, I actively took part in research and teaching inter alia International Law, Human Rights Law, Constitutional Law as well as Foundations of Legal Research. Prior to this, I headed the Legal Affairs Department of a Kenyan state corporation, Tourism Fund where I dealt with both local and international law matters, board support as well as offering general guidance on the requisite law and liaising with relevant government agencies. I have also worked as an Associate Advocate at Miller & Company Advocates, Nairobi- Kenya, where my work involved litigation as well as conveyancing practice.

Scholarship: -I have had the privilege of publishing the following besides my doctoral thesis titled, 'The Responsibility to Protect Principle: A Comparative Perspective on the last Decade of Implementation'.

Siboe N.N., "The Criteria for Self Determination and Recognition as a Sovereign State: Case of Kosovo" (2020) Open Science Journal Vol. 5 (4) <<https://osjournal.org/ojs/index.php/OSJ/article/view/2423>>

Siboe N.N, "A Comparative Analysis of the Legal Framework for inclusion of Women in Trade (July 2020) East African Magistrates and Judges Association Law Journal, Vol.3 No. 1, 2020

Siboe, N. (2019). Responsibility to Protect in Practice: A Comparative Analysis of Whether it has served its Purpose in the last Decade. In: V. Sancin, ed., Responsibility to Protect: Lessons Learned and The Way Forward, 1st ed. Ljubljana: University of Ljubljana, pp.121-143

Nancy Namisi Siboe, "Use of Artificial Intelligence by the Judiciary in the face of COVID-19", (OxHRH Blog, April 2020), <http://ohrh.law.ox.ac.uk/use-of-artificial-intelligence-by-the-judiciary-in-the-face-of-covid-19/>

Research interests include humanitarian intervention (use of force) in civil wars (Syria, Yemen, Ivory Coast and Libya), Public Law, Public International Law, Human Rights Law and the use of Artificial Intelligence in the legal profession.